WHAT ARE CHILDREN?

What are children? Flowers? They are the flowers of the invisible world, indestructible, self-perpetuating flowers, each with a multitude of angels and evil spirits underneath its leaves, telling and wrestling for dominion over it.

Blossoms! They are the blossoms of another world, whose fragrance is angels and archangels, or dewdrops? They are dewdrops that have their source, not in the chambers of the earth, nor among the vapors of the sky, which the next breath of wind or the next flash of sunshine may dry up forever, but among the everlasting fountains and inexhaustible reservoirs of mercy and love.—John Neal.

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

- HOMERON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness 1. I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.
- SHELBYVILLE, KY.—"I suffered from a severe female trouble. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."—Mrs. MOLLIE SMITH, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky.
- HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.
- DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2437 East William Street, Decatur, Ill.
- CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years 5. my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1588 Constant St., Cleveland, O.

Entertainment

"The Bulletin Holmes Travelogue" are based upon this fundamental principle: That all knowledge acquired in an entertaining or pleasing way is more easily retained than that for which we have to dig. The five thousand beautiful and wonderful pictures are worth more than the grosser, less satisfactory price of the publication as they are not five thousand taken at random, but five thousand of the most sacred and holy places of the world, places that anyone would go a long way out of his way to see if he were making a tour of any of these countries, but Holmes picks them up from the four corners of the globe and places them in your home where you sit in your easy chair and tell you all about them.

INCOME TAX LAW IS DEFENDED IN BRIEF

Man With Greater Assets Can Stand Burden Better Than Poorer Class.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(Reuter.) Taxation on big incomes as a relief from the "disproportionate share" of governmental support borne by the poor under indirect taxation was defended today by the government in a brief filed with the supreme court in the pending income tax cases.

The brief leaves the duties of Attorney General Gregory, Solicitor General Davis and Assistant Attorney General William Wallace, Jr., and represents months of study by the government's legal talent of all the various attacks on the income tax, the success of which would reduce the government's income $88,000,000 a year.

"The ordinary system of indirect taxation upon consumption places upon the poor person a disproportionate share of the burden of governmental support," says the brief in reply to a charge of discrimination in the additional or surtax on incomes of over $20,000. "Income taxation tends to shift the burden upward. It is undeniable that the greater the income the greater the ease with which the payment of taxes is met. Even allowing for the normal inevitable increase in the 'cost of living' he who has the larger income, the more easily can shoulder the burden of increasing, as the amount of income increases, not merely the total tax, but also the rate of taxation. At least Congress has in its discretion determined that the heavier burden can be carried

PARIS' FAVORITE TAILLEUR.

Just an ounce of frivolity is there in this Parisienne street costume. Although severe tailored distinction is in the vanguard, the Parisienne who delects little frivolous touches, has put her stamp of approval on the tailor pictured. Coat and skirt are of very dark blue gabardine, and the skirt shows an odd apron like drapery of blue radiant taffeta. The coat is trimmed in military style with braid aligraffe, and the high collar of velvet is lined with taffeta.

more easily by the larger income and it is not for the courts to say that such classification is outrageous." Answering a contention that, despite the sixteenth amendment, the constitution still requires income taxes to be uniform, the brief argues that the uniformity rule is limited to exact taxes and does not reach direct taxes.

WELL, STRONG AND HEALTHY

Doctor Recommended Cardui to Build Up Her Strength. Said It Was a Fine Medicine.

Mandarin, Fla.—"About 18 years ago, after the birth of my child," writes Madame C. Billard, of this place, "I was in a very low and run-down state of health, and was very weak. Dr. — then of — recommended that I take Cardui. He was treating me, and he told me to take it to build up my strength. Said it was a fine medicine. I took 3 bottles and it built me up. After the use of 2, I was greatly improved in flesh, strength, and health, in fact was entirely well, but took one more bottle to be sure I had taken enough. I was able to do my work and was a well, strong woman."

I highly recommend it as a tonic. I have never had bad health since, have been well and strong and healthy ever since."

Cardui, the woman's tonic, is a medicine prepared from vegetable medicinal ingredients, which have been found to exert a tonic, building influence.
